

The Book of Remembrances

One of the most powerful forms of prayer is that of remembering. We remember the good times, the hard times, our friends, relatives and those we meet on the way. This meeting of souls creates a profound resonance between us. Because of our relationship with relatives and friends, we cherish a wealth of memories. "God gave us memory that we might have roses in December," wrote J. M. Barrie.

Therefore, we, the Sisters of St. Francis of Mary Immaculate, humbly place before God our prayers for all those, living and deceased, whose names are entered in this Book of Remembrances. These names are like a golden thread that unites us in a mutual relationship with each other and with God, whom we believe will give a happy ending to our life story.
